Sharing of river waters with Bangladesh

*77. SHRI KAPIL VERMA:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that India and Bangladesh have agreed on sharing of waters of four common riv ers;

(b) if so, whether any guiding principles have been enuciated in this regard; and

(c) the outcome of the recent discussions held at Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRI VIDYACHARAN SHUKLA) : (a) and (b) It has been proposed that initially the four rivers-namely Meghana, Brahmaputra, Teesta and Ganga will be considered together for considering the sharing of waters between India and Bangladesh so that deficits in one can be met with from the quantities available in the other.

(c) In the Secretary level discussions held at Delhi in October, 1991, it was agreed that a joint observation station to monitor the flows of the Tista river would be established on the Indian side near the border. Bangladesh side gave a draft operational plan for long-term sharing of waters of the river Tista between Bangladesh and India and the Indian side presented the possibilities of formulating a comprehensive arrangement for sharing of river waters based on a long-term perspective.
